New Entertainment @ MBTBC

We've got a new crop of quality entertainment lined up to perform at the Club. For a memorable night out - why not check out who's playing...

De ja Vous

Combining Female and Male vocals with acoustic guitar and full backing tracks Deja Vu is easy listening. John & Nat have worked the Brisbane Music scene for the past 10 years and can move seamlessly from Norah Jones to Powderfinger to Stevie Wonder to Maroon 5 and back again. With a mix of latest hits to classic party and beyond including, strong enough, Save Tonight, Something So Strong and Sweet Home Alabama. Deja Vu is another crowd pleaser.

Nemesis

A fun loving 4-piece band playing music for all occasions. Featuring easy listening classic music fused with soul, Rhythm & Blues.

Contageous

Damon McLean and Rick Agius, both from successful cover band Lunar Juice have united to form the duo Contagious. Damon and Rick are extraordinarily creative with their guitars, vocal melodies and harmonies, together they know how to entertain and energise the audience with their melodic slant on acoustic rock. Tracks range from classics like Queen's Crazy Little Thing Called Love to modern covers such as Better Than by John Butler Trio keeping the mood flowing throughout the night.

Punchline

Punchline pride themselves on professionalism and have even performed overseas in Singapore. The lead singer, Jeunesse has a very versatile voice, while Matty provides vocal support and lead guitar. With Aaron playing bass and Michael on drums they provide a deep groove and strong rhythm. Punchline are adaptable and energetic with a song list consisting of Top 40, Rock Classics, Funk and the occasional hint of Jazz and Blues

Me & Mrs Jones

This Duo have a wealth of musical experience and a wide variety of music styles, with Jodie's voice and stage presence and Brian's vocal ability and guitar skills they make for an entertaining evening with a broad appeal covering tracks from The Eagles, Shania Twain, Billy Ocean and Wes Carr.

Able Magwitch

In the 70's "Able Magwitch" was support act to many International and Australia bands, Paul McCartney & the Wings, Status Quo, Blondie, AC/DC, The Little River Band and Hush to name a few, now these five musos have joined with a couple of very talented guitarists and together they have created the great "Able Magwitch" sound that will turn back the clock and perform Live many of the classic hits that will have you living in the 70's again!

Usual Suspects

The combination of raw rock power, youth, experience, skill, fun, passion and tons of energy makes this band appeal to a wide audience with a mix of 70's - 80's pop & rock classics, plus driving 90's to top 40 alternative rock. The band prides itself on having something for everyone and aim to involve their audience in the show to generate a feel-good vibe. They never fail to please an audience with the mix and style of the music played and its presentation.

Velvet Star

Velvet Star are a live acoustic duo based in Queensland, consisting of husband and wife, Anthony and Karla Pizzica. Originally launched seven years ago as "Fever" Velvet Star have performed at numerous venues, Sirromet Winery, Iron Bar Tavern (Port Douglas) and Fridays (Riverside & Mooloolaba) to name a few. They have also performed at many events including the Melbourne F1 Grand Prix in a private function for the McLaren team. With their versatile repertoire including tracks ranging from Crowded House's Better Be Home Soon to Kylie's Can't Get You Out Of My Head this duo are sure to have the crowd on their feet.

Comicbook Hero

Dizzy and Dave randomly met and initially performed together in the Milli Vanilli Tribute Show before taking a brief break to explore careers in other directions. They unexpectedly met up again queuing to buy Kenny Rogers tickets and decided to form Comic Book Hero. This duo can be the life of the party or a smooth Sunday afternoon. With a repertoire of over 250 songs (no Milli Vanilli ©) including Jack and Dianne, Ticket To Ride, 500 Miles and Stuck in The Middle Comicbook Hero are great all-round entertainment.

Bigger than Texas

Warren Spiteri and Chris Hunter join forces to produce a dynamic and entertaining duo. The duo have entertained audiences around Sydney, Northern NSW, SE Queensland and the Whitsundays. The combination of strong vocal harmonies, acoustic guitar and backing drums along with a diverse song selection will keep any audience vibed. The song list is a mix of new and old classic hits.

Anthony Classen

After more than two decades of performing across Australia Anthony is no rookie, he currently performs around 140 gigs a year and has built a strong following. He has performed alongside legendary Aussie entertainers, Jon English and Paul Kelly and has toured The Netherlands and UK as a solo artist, his unmistakable voice is heard in the countless television and radio commercials he has written, sung and produced. The title of his show says it all, Surf, Rock 'n Country.

Big Duo

Big Duo have been playing around Brisbane for the last two years. The line up of acoustic guitar and drums results in BIG sound from the DUO - Shawn Markham and Duncan Mitchell. At times you will think there are more than two of them on stage as they engage the crowd playing tracks from all of your favourite artists.
